Secret Signal & Secret Duplicate Key

There is a "Secret Signal" between cram school lecturers Mizumori and Nishijima. Nishijima's new cell phone strap means the invitation "How about today?" Although it's supposed to let him be professional about looking forward to his secret relationship and divide business from bodily pleasure, the atmosphere becomes dangerous?! *T/N: Heilong appears to be a river running at the south Russian and north Chinese border. Nizumon requests a very specific quality type of sake called ginjou which is brewed from thoroughly polished rice.
